

Q&A

Q: Do you have to be catholic to attend SJRS?

A: No, our school welcomes all denominations and faiths. When you register your child, there is a form we ask you to sign if you would like your child to be a part of our religion classes and masses.

Q: What options are there for financial aid? Is there a payment plan?

A: Financial aid ranges from EICT to OSTC and can be applied for through our FACTs site. There are payment plans available: Semiannual and Monthly (10 month).

Q: What's the curriculum like? Do you teach Common Core?

A: Our curriculum is based on the Diocesan guidelines and meet PA State regulations. Common Core is not the process used to teach math through our school.

Q: What grades do the students switch classrooms?

A: Student classrooms are self-contained until 5th grade where they will begin switching rooms for a number of subjects.

Q: What special classes are taught?

A: Our school still implements physical education, art, library, music, and computer technology.

Q: Is there public transportation?

A: Yes. Busing is provided for all students.

Q: Do they have to carry clear book bags/lunch packs?

A: No. Our school does not have any restrictions or requirements when it comes to backpacks and lunch cans.
